

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Cf. Ps 98 (97): 1-2

Cantate Domino canticum novum

Roman Missal: O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders; in the sight of the nations he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

Roman Gradual: Sing to the Lord a new song, alleluia; for the Lord has accomplished wondrous deeds, alleluia; he has revealed his justice in the sight of the Gentiles, alleluia, alleluia.

✠ His right hand and his holy arm have given him victory.

These antiphons basically match, but I included the Gradual one to show where all the extra alleluias and the verse come from.

Introit Hymn OPTION 4

- 1 Sing to the Lord a new made song,
who wondrous things has done;
With his right hand and holy arm
the conquest he has won.
The Lord has through th' astonished world displayed his saving might,
And made his righteous acts appear
in all the nations' sight.
2. Let therefore earth's inhabitants their cheerful voices raise,
And all with universal joy
resound their Maker's praise.
To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
All praise and glory be;
As was, is now, and shall be still
For all eternity.

This metrical setting of Psalm 98 from the 1821 Tate and Brady Psalter very effectively sets the text of today's antiphon. I added the doxology at the end of vs 2.
