

1. If you, O Lord, laid bare our guilt, O
2. To Fa - ther, Son and Ho - ly Ghost, All

Lord, who could sur - vive? But you, O God of praise and glo - ry be; As was, is now, and

Is - ra - el, for - give; our souls re - vive. From e'er shall be for all e - ter - ni - ty. If depths of woe I call to you; O

you, O Lord, laid bare our guilt, O

Lord now hear my cry. O let your ears our Lord, who could sur - vive? But you, O God of prayers now hear; on mer - cy we re - ly.

Is - ra - el, for - give; our souls re - vive.
